GIRL USED WEAPON TO DEFEND HONOR

Miss Florence Moore, Victim of a Dastardly Assault, is Able to Make Written Statement.

REVOLVER TAKEN AND USED TO BEAT HER

No Clue to Wretches That Assaulted and Almost Killed Girl Near Center of City.

GIRL'S STATEMENT.

I shot at him and he took my revolver away from me and ran away, but if I die I die decent. When they took it away they hit me over the head.—Statement written by Miss Florence Moore at St. Joseph hospital this morning.

That Miss Florence Moore was prepared for an attack and that she fired a shot at two men who assaulted her last night and that with her return to consciousness and the recovery of her power of speech she will be able to give the police some valuable information are the developments of the day in a bold attempt to ravish a young woman on East Lewis street last night.

Miss Moore is at St. Joseph's hospital and she wrote on a slip of paper this morning that there were two men, that she had a revolver and fired one shot and that the weapon was taken from her and she was struck on the head with it.

Struck on the Head.

At first physicians despaired of saving her life as the hyoid bone and larynx were badly injured by the grip of a hand about her throat and Drs. M. W. Tinkham and J. W. McClausland who were first called in the case, and Dr. A. H. Macbeth, who inserted a tube in her throat, were at a loss to account for the fact that she was unconscious.

Her explanation that she was struck on the side of the head indicates an injury to the skull and a slight internal hemorrhage and holds out the hope that unless the condition rights itself an operation will save her life. She was conscious at intervals during the morning and wrote on a slip of paper the facts that are now in possession of the police.

Unable to Account for Attack.

The attack upon Miss Moore was made last night a few minutes after she had left the home of Louis Feist, 336 East Lewis street and took place at the mouth of the alley running south from Lewis street immediately east of Barr.

On Monday night she was attacked at the mouth of the alley running east from Clinton street between Jefferson and Lewis. She told at the time that two men dragged her into the alley and one of them exclaimed: "Now we have you and we'll fix you." While one held her the other drew a knife and tried to stab her and she prevented it by parrying the blows with her hands.

Last night she left her work at the Trade Mark Title company's offices in the Physicians' Defense company's building at Clinton and Wayne streets and went to the Feist home.

Evidently Waiting for Her.

The men were evidently waiting for her and knew that she would pass the alley on her way to a boarding house on Lewis street, near Clinton, as she took her meals there. She was on her way at the time to meet her sister, employed in the Prudential Insurance company's offices and who is known as Grace Crimmans, and announced when she started she would take supper with her sister.

She was dragged from the mouth of the alley half a square to the intersection of the cross alley in the middle of the block, where she was found a short time afterward by Mrs. Theodore Smenner, of 1215 Barr street, and Theodore Havert, who lives next door.

She was unconscious at the time and her clothing indicated that an attempt had been made to ravish her, but the physicians say it was unsuccessful, although scratches upon her person indicate very clearly the object of the brute.

Purse is Missing.

A purse that she carried and which is supposed to have contained between $7 and $8, is missing, although her watch was found pinned to her waist after she had been removed to the hospital. The sister passed the mouth of the alley shortly after the attempt, as she left her work at 6 o'clock and went over to Calhoun street on her way home. This morning she said she was afraid to take either Clinton or Barr street on account of the assault of Monday night.

She reached the Feist home, where the two made headquarters, although they occupied a room in the Foster residence across the street. Miss Crimmans waited for her sister for some time and later learned of the attack. She went to the hospital and remained during the night, but said this morning that the patient had said nothing that would give them the slightest clue to her assailants.

Police Have No Theory.

Inquiry in the neighborhood developed nothing that would throw any light on the subject. H. L. Foster, at whose home the two girls rented a room, stated that Miss Moore had never received any company at the house, that both young women are in the habit of spending their evenings at home and that he cannot advance anything that would be of aid to the police. In the room were a number of letters and postals, but none threw any light on the crime.

A canvass among the people living in the immediate vicinity did not show the presence in the neighborhood shortly before the crime of any two men that excited suspicion. One or two contended that they had heard a shot fired, but the police were not inclined to place much faith in this until they obtained the written statement from Miss Moore this morning.

One letter that she had just written was found by the police. This was addressed to "Dear Mother," and there was nothing in it to give a clue. It was to have been sent to Mrs. J. L. Moore, of Logansport, with whom the young lady lived during her childhood.

To Give Up Sweetheart.

In this letter she said that she had intended to break an engagement with Sam Cohen, who formerly worked at the baggage room of the interurban station, was afterward with the Pennsylvania company as a switchman and is now employed on the Big Four at Indianapolis.

The police heard that Cohen was in town and they made a long search for him last night, but failed to locate him. Miss Moore had a letter and a postal from him mailed at Indianapolis on Tuesday and which were delivered at the Feist residence early yesterday morning.

He was in Fort Wayne on October 26 and she saw him then, but has not seen him since. Inquiry among his friends brought conflicting information on the subject, but the police could not find him.

Can Throw No Light.

Miss Crimmans has been questioned repeatedly and at great length by the police. Both Chief Ben Elliott and Captain Robert Dickson took up the case with the firm belief that she could tell them something that would help them solve the mystery surrounding the case and get the guilty parties, but she has maintained stoutly that she knows nothing.

Miss Cecelia Feist, a close friend of the victim, was also asked if she could tell anything that would aid the department and she said she could not recall any circumstance that would point to the perpetrators of the crime.

No One Heard Sound.

The Wilson residence is located at the corner of the alley and there are windows the whole length of the house that open upon it. The windows in the front room are within a few feet of the spot at which the first assault took place and this room was occupied at the time as were the others along the alley, but nobody heard a sound of the struggle.

The course lay back of several houses that are a comparatively short distance from the alley and in all of them the residents were at home, but until the groans of the girl attracted the attention of Mrs. Smenner none heard a sound that prompted an investigation.

Mrs. Smenner knew nothing more today than she had already told the police. She heard the girl groaning and was afraid to go back alone, she said, and summoned Mr. Havert. The girl was huddled against the fence and the police were called as soon as she had been taken into the house.

There is a residence immediately upon the alley and the occupants, in common with the other people living in the square, saw nothing to arouse their suspicion and knew nothing of the assault until the girl's body had been picked up and carried into the Smenner residence.

Footprints in Mud.

There were footprints in the mud in the alley, but these were of little benefit to the police as a number of people assisted in carrying the young lady out of the alley and many passed in and out immediately after the assault.

Marks indicated that she had been held by the head and dragged into the alley and the heels of her shoes showed that they had been scraped along through the mud.

After the first attack Mr. Foster advised the girl to get a gun and she probably followed the advice if the statement she made this morning can be relied upon.

At the time the attack occurred the stores and factories in the central portion of the city are pouring a stream of employes into Lewis street as a general rule. More of them took the cars last night than is the rule, but the thoroughfare is one greatly traveled by people living in the southeastern portion of the city and for this reason the attack was singularly bold.

It was also evidently executed with

It will be characterized by general business discussions for the good of the fraternity, a reception at the Anthony hotel this evening and initiation of a class of candidates that is expected to reach a total of 150 members.

Supreme officers of the fraternity already in attendance are Miss Bina West, of Port Huron, Mich., supreme record keeper; Mrs. Grace Meredith, of Wabash, state commander, and Mrs. Minnie M. Olds, of Ohio, supreme trustee.

TO GIVE WASHINGTON STATUE.

Washington, Nov. 2.—American residents of Mexico propose presenting the government of that country with a statue of George Washington. James E. Long, of Mexico, has asked the commissioners of the District of Columbia for data relative to sculptors and statues. The aid of the commissioners will be extended.

PEORIA IS NOW QUIET.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 3.—Quiet prevails today at the county jail, where Joseph Heffman, the man who is charged with assaulting Miss Maxo Clark, a school teacher, late Tuesday afternoon, is imprisoned. The excitement about the city has dwindled down and the law will be permitted to take its course.

KILLED IN INTERURBAN WRECK.

Cars Crash Together in Fog at Outskirts of Elkhart.

Elkhart, Ind., Nov. 3.—Motorman Chas. Dillman of this city, was killed and Motorman Harry Hahns of South Bend, seriously injured this afternoon when an interurban on the North Indiana Traction line ran into a car standing at the city limits. A heavy fog is said to have caused the collision. None of the passengers were injured.

ONCE WEATHLY; HIS LIFE ENDS IN POVERTY

Thomas Stevens, Former Editor, Dies at County Infirmary.

Thomas Stevens, 71 years of age, and former publisher of a newspaper at Monroeville known as the Democrat, died at midnight Wednesday night at the Allen county infirmary. Once possessor of a fortune which he made during the gold craze in California, Stevens lost his wealth through reverses of various kinds and died in poverty.

Stevens located in Monroeville in 1868 after his return from California, and for some years was an active and prominent citizen of the town. He was a banker, a broker and a newspaper man, and gave some attention to the practice of law. The present Monroeville Breeze is the successor of the Democrat which Stevens published there. For some years he had traveled about the country eking out a living as a peddler of trinkets and notions.

Something like two weeks ago the aged man was found lying helpless and ill along the roadside near Payne, O., nearly dead from exposure. Those who remembered the man in his more prosperous days assisted him to Monroeville and the township trustee directed his removal to the county infirmary. Stevens is said to have a sister residing in Monroe township, but no other relatives.

The remains were taken to the Kluehn & Melching undertaking rooms.

FURTHER ACTION IS DEFERRED UNTIL LATER

No Immediate Steps Toward Organization of the Car Men.

Further action looking toward the organization of the city street railway employes in Fort Wayne has been deferred until later, and Rezin Orr, international treasurer of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, who was present at the meeting held Tuesday evening, has returned to his home at Detroit. Union labor authorities say that an expression from employes who were not in attendance at the meeting as well as those who were there discloses that a large per cent of the men favor the formation of an organization. They fully expect to see an organization within a short time, they declare.

Traction officials decline to discuss the situation beyond the statement that so far as they are aware all the men present at the meeting, including some twelve or fifteen who were asked to leave it because they were suspected of being detectives or spies, are legitimate employes of the company and that no men were imported for the purpose of defeating the effort at organization. The men who were not allowed to participate in the deliberations are now at work on the lines, it is said.

WASHED RESERVOIR OUT.

Basin Thoroughly Cleaned and Ready for Water.

Water will be turned into the reservoir tonight following a thorough cleaning given it by city employes. Yesterday men in boats scrubbed the lower walls with coarse brooms and today one of the fire engines was used to wash down the sides thoroughly. The lake will also be filled after its cleaning in the course of which several loads of tin cans, old dishes and other refuse were hauled away.

DUE TOMORROW NOON.

Hupmobile Party Delays Its Start from Detroit.

The Hupmobile travelers comprising fifty-three dealers who are driving this make of car, due to leave Detroit this morning, did not start until noon today, and A. L. Randall, of this city, who is a member of the party, telephoned that the big cavalcade will not reach Fort Wayne until noon tomorrow. It had been the original plan to come to Fort Wayne this evening and spend the night here.

THE COLONEL IS SHOOTING ON RUN

Drops a Reply from Train in Ohio to Get Back at Mr. Dix.

IS NOW EN ROUTE TO HAWKEYE STATE

Alliance, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt, en route to Chicago today, gave out a statement on the train in reply to the speech made by John A. Dix, democratic candidate for governor of New York, last night. Mr. Roosevelt said: "Mr. Dix becomes exceedingly valorous about me, the moment I leave the state. I'll answer him when I get back. I call the attention of all wage workers to the fact that having in effect defended the bake shop decision, which forbade New York state to interfere to prevent workingmen laboring an excessive number of hours under unhygienic conditions, he now in effect defends a decision declaring workingmen's compensation also unconstitutional.

Calls it Nonsense.

"It is of course mere nonsense for Mr. Dix to assert that he is for the principle, either of limiting excessive hours of labor under unhealthful conditions or of establishing the right of the workman to be compensated for the loss of life or limb when working at their trades, for he is now explicitly upholding the judges who have decided against these principles and is condemning the more numerous judges who have taken the opposite view and have upheld the rights of the laboring man instead of adhering to outworn and purely technical legal doctrines, which in their working do the workingman cruel wrong and injustice.

"If Mr. Dix is right in his championship of Judge Baldwin's decision, and if Judge Baldwin was right in that decision, then it is unconstitutional for the nation and the states to grant any real relief to the workingmen in the shape of compensation acts.

Decision Will Fall.

The decision of Judge Baldwin, which Mr. Dix upholds, will not, I am confident, prove to be the law of the land either in nation or state, but to uphold it is entirely incompatible with any man as candidate saying that he is in favor of any real or effective workmen's compensation act. My answer to Judge Baldwin was dictated yesterday.

"I call attention to the fact that Mr. Dix does not dare deal with Mr. Stimson nor to meet one fact that Mr. Stimson has stated about him, still less in any shape or way aggressively or defensively to measure himself with Mr. Stimson."

HAD A DAY OF REST.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—After his exhausting campaign trips, which have been a severe strain upon him, Theodore Roosevelt had a day of rest today, as he traveled westward on his way to Iowa, where he is to speak tomorrow for Charles Grilk, republican candidate for congress. Col. Roosevelt was glad to have an opportunity to rest his throat, which has been in bad condition for several days. He passed through Pittsburg early today on the train which he boarded at Baltimore last night and is due at Chicago at 8:45 p. m. Mr. Grilk is to meet Mr. Roosevelt in Chicago and take him to Davenport, Iowa, leaving Chicago at 10 o'clock. Mr. Roosevelt is scheduled to make speeches in Davenport, Iowa City, West Liberty, Marengo and Des Moines. Then he will return to New York, making several speeches on his way across Ohio.

WILL SPEND TIME QUIETLY.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Nov. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt will undoubtedly spend a quiet election day following his busy campaign. He will reach Sagamore Hill Saturday night, it is expected, and on Tuesday probably will vote at the little village polling place, where he has cast his ballot for many years.

Election evening, surrounded by his family and a few friends, the colonel will hear the results of the voting, receiving the returns over a wire from New York city.

FINDS SHOOTING JUSTIFIED.

Coroner Holds Marshal Acted in Self-Defense in Killing Hardin.

Princeton, Ind., Nov. 3.—Coroner J. L. Morris yesterday afternoon filed his verdict in the Oakland City shooting affair last Saturday night, holding that Marshal Tom Webster shot Andrew Jackson Hardin in self defense, while the latter was shapping a gun at him. The coroner recommends that the county grand jury make an investigation as to where Hardin procured his liquor.

NO AUTOS AT BAR HARBOR.

Augusta, Me., Nov. 3.—Bar Harbor will continue to get along without motor cars. In the supreme court today Justice Wm. P. Whitehouse in a reseript declared the so-called Bar Harbor automobile exclusion bill passed by the legislature last year to be constitutional. The bill had the support of many New York, Boston and Philadelphia people who have summer homes at Bar Harbor, but was opposed by some of the permanent residents.

CLASS IN ROSE CROIX.

Emanuel chapter will confer the Rose Croix degrees upon a small class of candidates at the Scottish Rite cathedral on Friday evening.

WILL RESTORE BOTH TO FAMILIES IN GERMANY

Henry Keller and Woman Held for Few Days —The City Court.

An effort will be made to restore both Henry Karl Keller and Gesine Ahlers to their families in Germany and with that end in view their cases were continued in the city court today until Nov. 10. They had been living as man and wife on Smith street and each has a family and both are willing to return.

Unless Keller returns an effort will be made to have his family brought to Fort Wayne, but the woman will go back to her four children and her husband as soon as a ticket for her transportation arrives.

The Other Cases.

William Stites, under the name of Young, was given one day in jail and a fine of $1 and costs for stealing corn from Horstman's livery barn. A younger brother was held to the juvenile court for the same offense.

Dave Taylor, who kicked in a door in a South Calhoun street rooming house, was fined $10 and costs.

Dan Straub, Richard Liggett, Ed Smith, Clyde Jackson and Albert Jones plain drunks, were let go.

For drunkenness William Hicks was fined $5 and costs and James O'Brien and Jack Laughlin drew $1 each.

Frank Kedrowicz, who tried to wreck the Hartman drugstore at Lewis and Lafayette streets, was fined $5 and costs and promised to pay for the damage.

SITTING TIGHT ON HIS ISLAND.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Back on his own island and safely entrenched behind his battery of machine guns, Gen. Jose Valladares, the eccentric commandant of Amapala, the Pacific port of Honduras, has openly defied President Davila to put him out of his job. The United States gunboat Princeton which has been at Amapala about three weeks to protect United States interests has been ordered to remain there until relieved.

Minister McCreery telegraphed last night that Valadares had left the capital a few days ago in company with Gen. Calipto Carias, who had been designated by the president as his successor. Valladares told the president he would turn the island over to Carias after which he would return to the capital, but evidently changed his mind.

J. M. M'KAY A DIRECTOR.

Chosen to Succeed A. B. Trentman at First National Bank.

James M. McKay, of the wholesale grocery house of G. E. Bursley & Co., has been elected a director of the First National bank, succeeding A. B. Trentman. Mr. Trentman's business interests require his presence out of the city so large a portion of the time that he is unable to attend meetings of the board, and he tendered his resignation in consequence, though retaining his interests in the First National.

CITIZENS ARE DIVIDED.

Although all the residents of Bloomingdale and Nebraska want an opening under the Nickel Plate tracks there is a division of opinion as to which of three streets ought to be opened. Cherry, Osage and Mechanic are all advocated. The board of public works looked over the ground yesterday with Councilmen Pinniger and Pfleger, but took no action.

Mr. Pinniger announced that he would introduce an ordinance providing for the appointment of a city sealer of weights and measures.

FIVE BIKE TEAMS TIED.

Boston, Nov. 3.—The fourth day of the six-day bicycle race at the Boston arena found five teams tied for first honors. The leading teams, each with 667 miles and two laps to its credit are: Kramer and Moran; Fogler and Collins, Hehir and Goulette, Wiley and Lawrence, Palmer and Wright. The standing of the other contestants: Bedell brothers, McCarthy and Thomas; Demara and Williams; Walker and Mitten, 677 miles 1 lap; Jokus and Schiller, 676 miles 7 laps.

CONSULTING ARCHITECTS.

Purchase of Building by Shriners Depends Upon Remodeling Cost.

The purchase of the Saengerbund building by Mizpah temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, is said to depend almost wholly upon the cost of remodeling the structure to meet the needs of the organization.

A special committee of the nobles is now in consultation with architects to ascertain this phase of the situation. They will report in about thirty days.

Mrs. Lillian R. Kerr has been commissioned a notary public.

MAY SPREAD BIG STRIKE TO EAST

Garment Workers of Chicago Hear Work is Sent Out of That City.

LIKELY TO CALL STRIKE ELSEWHERE

Police Having Trouble Coping With the Situation in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—President Noren, of the Chicago council of the National council of the United Garment Makers of America, stated today that he had reason to believe that Chicago tailors, against whom there is a strike, are sending garments to the shops of New York, Philadelphia and Cincinnati to be made up.

"We are investigating," said Mr. Noren, "and if the report is true, Thomas A. Rickert, president of the national council of the organization will call strikes in the cities named, providing that the local trouble is still unsettled.

Police Reserve Doubled.

The number of police reserved for riot duty in the garment workers' strike was doubled today owing to the turbulence of yesterday.

"The strikers seem to be gaining at every hand," said Inspector Healy, "and we have found it a great task to send enough policemen to handle the mobs. The method of the strikers is a clever one and we have found it impossible to prevent pickets from getting into the shops, which in my district, have already lost two-thirds of their employes.

Work of Pickets.

"The pickets join those who are on their way to work and do not start anything until they have gained the confidence of some of the workers, and persuaded them to quit work.

"Then a rush is made for the street and a demonstration is started to induce the others to join."

In Inspector Healy's district 115 policemen were ordered on guard duty at the shops, while 200 more were held in reserve at the stations.

MAY END EXPRESS STRIKE.

New York, Nov. 3.—The movement for a settlement of the strike of express company drivers and helpers which has practically tied up express business in and around New York city for a week past took more definite form today with the announcement that representatives of the companies would meet representatives of the men this afternoon to discuss plans for ending the strike.

The meeting was scheduled to be held in Jersey City at 3 o'clock. Indications were that each side would enter the conference with a willingness to concede something and prospects for a settlement, possibly before nightfall, looked bright. Earnest efforts to adjust grievances, and a resort to arbitration if the joint conference of agreement seemed to be the program.

No Developments Looked For.

Pending the proposed meeting this afternoon no developments were looked for in the arbitration proposition made by the men through the National Civic Federation and Mayor Gaynor. The companies seemed to prefer meeting the men's committee first and trying for a direct adjustment by placing their interests in the hands of arbitrators. No indication was given, however, how the company heads, particularly Frank H. Platt, head of the United States Express company, among whose employes the strike movement originated, stood on the arbitration proposition. It was believed, however, there would be no serious obstacle placed in the way of arbitration should the direct negotiations fail.

BULLET FROM SKY KILLS BOY.

Youngster Gazes in Air and Is Struck in Eye by Rifle Ball.

Sullivan, Ind., Nov. 3.—Ralph Lisman, 8 years old, son of Calvin Lisman, of Paxton, was struck in the right eye by a bullet from a rifle in the hands of Lawrence Barcus, 12 years old, son of George Barcus, postmaster of Paxton, at 5 o'clock last evening and died an hour later. Young Lisman was looking upward trying to see the bullet, which had been fired into the air, and it struck him when it came down. Coroner Padgett pronounced the death accidental.

SENATOR SHIVELY BETTER.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 3.—United States Senator B. F. Shively has recovered sufficiently from the operation for the removal of a toe to be able to sit up and dictate a number of political articles for the newspapers. He enjoys three hearty meals a day at the hospital and expects to be removed to his home in a short time. Today he is enjoying the flowers sent to him last night by his colleague, Senator Beveridge.

CHURCH WORKERS MEET.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 3.—The annual meeting of the general committee of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church opened today. The conference will be devoted to the consideration of the wisest methods of distributing about $1,200,000 among the foreign missions. This is approximately the amount the board has at its disposal each year. The sessions will continue for a week.

The Indianapolis shops of the Pennsylvania have on the pay rolls 851 names, the largest list in the history of the shops.

great dispatch as a slight disturbance at that time of the evening would have attracted a crowd in a few minutes.

Right Name Is Burke.

The victim's correct name is Burke. She is 22 years old and since June, 1907, has been employed at the offices of the Trade-Mark Title company with the exception of a few months in the fall of 1907 when she went to Chicago. She returned in a short time and resumed her old place.

Something of Family History.

She and Miss Crimmans, or rather the young woman known by that name, are sisters but until four years ago knew nothing of each other. The girl who was attacked last night was taken into the family of J. L. Moore, at Logansport and spent most of her life there and has been known by their name. Her sister was raised in Fort Wayne and her foster mother is dead. Four years ago an aunt living at Star City, near Logansport, was stricken with tuberculosis and before she went west in an effort to recuperate her health she told Florence Moore the family history and in a short time the sisters were united. They have since lived together in Fort Wayne.

The victim of the attack bears an excellent reputation. She is devoted to her church and stands high in the regard of her acquaintances. There is nothing in the family history that will aid in running down her assailants. She has two brothers, both known as Burke, and one of whom was a porter at the Avelino hotel when it burned and who was thought to have perished in the flames.

Chief Elliott's Statement.

"From the information I gathered during the day I'm inclined to the belief that Miss Moore was taken for somebody else. This is my theory of the other attack and I think it is two cases of mistaken identity." This was given out by by Chief Elliott after he had gone over the ground. Captain Robert Dickson worked on the case all night and said this morning he was at sea. Detective Sergeant Pappert took up the case today, but said this afternoon that he had not made any valuable discoveries.

Miss Moore was unconscious late this afternoon although she had had lucid intervals during the day. She made no statement other than that given during the forenoon.

COMPANY WILL TAKE FIGHT TO HIGH COURTS

South African Concern is Determined Not to Pay —Court News.

An appeal from the superior court to the appellate court of the state was taken today by the South African Importing company which was adjudged an itinerant concern a few days ago by Judge Sol Wood and ordered to pay the transient fee of $20 a day for operating a store in Fort Wayne.

The appeal was taken on an injunction suit which was directed against Country Treasurer William H. Scheiman to prevent him from collecting the tax. The fight against the concern was instituted by the Retail Merchants' association.

THINK IT HOLD UP GAME.

Red Line Messenger Sidesteps a Queer Deal.

What appeared to be an attempt to trim the Red Line Messenger company out of $150, by a piece of crooked work, was made Tuesday night by an unknown man. The man telephoned late Tuesday night and asked that a messenger be sent to an address on Calhoun street, where he would be given $150 to take to an address in the business district. The call was not an unusual one as the boys are often sent after large sums of money, but the man took particular pains to state that he wanted a receipt for the money from the messenger, and when asked to give his name he refused to do so. As a call of this kind is never taken unless the person's name is given, the messenger refused to send a boy for the money.

It is the general impression among the messenger boys in the office that if a messenger had been sent to the address he would have received the money, but would have been held up before he had gone very far, confederates of the man from whom he received it, and the man would have presented the receipt to the company with the demand that they stand good for the loss.

MESSRS. NEWLYWED PAIR OF HAPLESS HUSBANDS

Nabbed Away from Their Brides as They Get to Gotham.

New York, Nov. 3.—Peter C. McMartin, a wealthy young farmer from Beaman, Iowa, and William Adolph, a friend from Des Moines, were enjoying the spectacle of the Harlem river, having their coats and hats brushed, while their two brides were being dusted by the porter on an incoming New York Central train yesterday, when three detectives from the central office informed the two westerners they were under arrest.

McMartin, who is a handsome six-footer, expressed himself as being dumbfounded. Adolph was equally at a loss.

The men were arrested upon the information furnished by the following telegram received here yesterday from E. E. Johnson, chief of detectives, at Des Moines:

"Please arrest Peter C. McMartin and William K. Adolph, who left Chicago Tuesday on the Lake Shire 5:30, due in New York 4:42. Wanted for grand larceny of $1,400. Take possession of all money found on them."

The dispatch said the men were accompanied "by two small sized ladies."

Brides Are Not Worried.

The brides took the matter philosophically and made no scene, either in the train or at the station. The entire party took a trolley car to police headquarters.

McMartin had $637 in cash and a draft for $1,500 on the Farmers' Savings bank of Beaman, Iowa. He is unable to throw any light whatsoever on the charge.

According to the stories told by the two men, Adolph was employed as a machinist in the Strong Motor company at Des Moines, where he says that at present McMartin has four automobiles in storage and from which he has purchased eleven cars in the last three years. The men became acquainted through McMartin's association with the company when purchasing his cars and subsequently became fast friends.

Three months ago Adolph was married. Last week McMartin announced that he also was about to wed and take a trip to New York and then on through the country. He invited Adolph to come to Chicago and see the ceremony and then join him on the trip with his bride. Adolph accepted.

Married Vaudeville Actress.

McMartin's bride was Miss Pearl Washburn, of the vaudeville team called the Washburn sisters, Pearl and Dot. The marriage ceremony took place at the residence of the Rev. Andrew C. Lewis, on Chalmers street, Chicago, and was witnessed by Adolph and W. C. Washburn, the girl's father, who is said to be an artist.

"And if you don't believe it, here's the certificate for you," said Mrs. McMartin at headquarters yesterday, producing the document which the police were forced to admit looked real. They took the train out for New York that night.

McMartin told the police that he was worth about $500,000 in farm properties at Beaman. He said his father was dead. He said he had inherited the estate of his grandfather, Col. Duncan McMartin.

The two men were locked up at headquarters last night, after they had been allowed to take a long and affectionate farewell from their respective brides.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

THEY LOST OUT IN RACE WITH DEATH

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gibbs, of Rockford, Ohio, who had expected to reach here from their home before the death of Mrs. Gibbs' father, Frank F. Hamman, whose demise occurred Tuesday night, lost out in their race with death, having failed to catch an interurban car at Fort Wayne for Auburn that would have brought them here before the death of Mr. Hamman.

A telegram Tuesday afternoon informed Mrs. Gibbs of the extremely critical condition of her father. An automobile was secured and Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs made the trip across the country to Fort Wayne, where they were to take the interurban for Auburn. Arriving at Fort Wayne they were just a few moments too late to catch a car that would have brought them here before the father's death. They waited an hour an a half for the next car, and arriving here were told that Mr. Hammon had died just an hour previous.

Mr. Hamman was a well known resident of the county. He was about 60 years of age. A complication of diseases, with which he had been ill for months, was the cause of death. His widow and two daughters survive. He formerly resided near Waterloo. The funeral is held Friday morning at Waterloo.

ART NOT GUILTY OF WIFE DESERTION

Montpelier, Ind., Nov. 3.—Mrs. Art McCray filed an affidavit against her husband for wife desertion and Monday Marshal Reynolds went to Fort Wayne and got Art, who was working on the streets there.

Mrs. McCray went to Fort Wayne Sunday to visit with her husband, but was unable to find him and at once conceived the opinion that he had deserted her for another. Art's intentions were to send for her as soon as he had made enough money to do so. He was in Fort Wayne at the time when she was there and was not out with another, as she thought, but was with a crowd of fellow colored men.

McCray was heard in Mayor Burris' court in the evening and was acquitted. Mrs. McCray was deceived by her witnesses as they did not testify to the same as they informed her that they would. Art returned to his work at once after the trial.

False Charges Made It Impossible for Him to Get Work.

Goshen, Ind., Nov. 3.—Alleging that he has been unable to secure a position because of the false allegations of Louis F. Smith, Fred Halliwell, of Goshen, began suit against the former in the superior court, charging slander and asking $5,000 damages.

Halliwell declares in his petition Smith made false charges that Halliwell had stolen a watch belonging to Smith's father and through the circulation of this story made it impossible for him to find employment in his home city, Goshen. Halliwell alleges that the unwarranted persecutions of Smith drove him from the county seat and that he was forced to seek employment in Elkhart.

DEATH OF BUTLER WOMAN

While on a Visit With Sister in Whitley County.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 3.—Mrs. Sarah A. McNabb, of Butler, who had been on a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Emma Bower, in Thorncreek township, for a month, died yesterday after a five days' illness from a cold that developed into pneumonia. She had been in ill health for about four years, from Bright's disease, and the complications were too much for her weakened vitality.

She would have been 77 years of age had she lived until November 11, and was the widow of Daniel McNabb, who died three years ago at Butler.

The remains will be kept at the home of Mrs. Bower until Friday morning, when they will be shipped to her old home at Butler on the 8:56 train. The funeral and interment will occur there.

His physician gives little hope for benefit from the treatment at Fort Wayne, but it was decided to try treatment at the hospital as a last resort.

Optimism is a fine moral quality, but it may be overdone. Chairman McKinley, of the republican congressional committee, has written a letter to President Taft and Mr. Taft has published it that there is going to be no democratic majority in the next congress. Mr. McKinley admits it was a democratic year in July, but insists it is going to be a republican year in November. This argues a change of sentiment and where the Illinois congressman has found the signs of it is a mystery. His letter reads like one of the spirit boosters that the late James K. Jones used to send out when he was national democratic chairman. The Arkansaw senator could sweep the country like the besom of wrath right up to the close of the polls and generally he would never "give in" until the official count. Congressman McKinley assents he has been getting roseate advices from all sections and in substance says there's simply nothing to it. If that is the case there never was a more lying lot of portents in the political sky. Fact is, Congressman McKinley is fairly onto his job and is simply trying to "help some."

The latest phase of the Lorimer senatorial bribery is the indictment by a Chicago grand jury of one Erbstein, a lawyer, for bribing a juror in the last trial of Lee O'Neil Browne, democratic leader of the Illinois house of representatives and alleged boodle king in that body. Erbstein was attorney for Browne and it is alleged that in the second trial of Browne for bribery he "fixed" Juror McCutcheon. In the first trial of Browne for bribery in the Lorimer election the jury was out several days and finally reported disagreement. Immediately following that issue State's Attorney Wayman declared that the mistrial was the result of as "bold a job of jury-fixing as he ever knew." The second trial of Browne ensued in acquittal a short time after the jury retired. At once following that trial the state's attorney began his inquiry into the question of jury bribery. The first tangible result is the indictment of Erbstein. There seems to be no want of resource in the defense of the Lorimer seat and the protection of the Lorimer circle of friends, a situation quite to be expected in the case of a man so wealthy and powerful as the junior United States senator from Illinois. It will be interesting to observe what a trial jury will do with the confession before the grand jury of a "fixed" juror. State's Attorney Wayman ought by this time to be having them feeling afraid of him. His persistence is almost demoniac and it is well that it is so. He has a hard gang to fight.

There is a natural curiosity to know just what the colonel will have to say for the ticket and things in Ohio. The republican situation there embraces the "model platform," lauding the Payne-Aldrich tariff law and all the works of the national administration, including the firing of Pinchot and the rejection of Jim Garfield; Harding, a Foraker candidate for governor; George B. Cox, whom the colonel sent Taft into the state four years ago to denounce; Senator Charlie Dick, standpatter and reactionary of most approved type; ex-Senator Foraker, sulking because he cannot have permission to discuss the Brownsville affair and Theodore Roosevelt on the stump, and at last, though by no means least, Jim Garfield himself, who was all but thrown out of the republican state convention for presuming to be progressive. If the colonel can concoct a composite speech to fit that lay-out he will surpass the highest estimates of his ingenuity.

Scandal seems likely to put a snitch on the recent international aviation tournament at Belmont park. To begin with, charges almost definite, if not circumstantial, involve the winning of the Gordon Bennett cup by Claude Grahame White, the British contestant, and place against J. Armstrong Drexel grave suspicion of treason to America and a prostitution of true sportsmanship. In short, Mr. Drexel is charged with having thrown the race for the international cup to the Englishman. It is a nasty sort of mess that is being stirred up and it is likely to be added to by stormy charges of mismanagement. This new "sport of kings" is a great game and pity it will be if it cannot be fenced from dishonesty and trickery of the sort that has proved the undoing of other sports now and again.

Senator Beveridge says all the writers are "for him." If he means the Indiana writers and it is true they are, Colonel Kern may just as well trek for home and await the sad details. The "literary fellers" in Indiana are a majority, though owing to certain constitutional obstacles a lot of them can't vote.

Some of those ardent gentlemen who are participating in prominent ways in the New York campaign will unavoidably meet some time and a lot of tall talk will be let in for the hot air brand or there will be a hurry call for the riot wagon.

Jury bribing seems to be such a common occurrence in Chicago that it is simply no trouble at all to find it out.

OPPOSES AMENDMENT.

Editor of The Sentinel: Kindly let me call your attention to the effort now being made by the Bar association to obtain an amendment to that part of the state constitution regarding the admittance to the bar.

The only qualification now required is that the applicant shall have read the constitution of the United States and is of good moral character. This qualification has been entirely satisfactory to the people as a whole and there is no real reason why it should be changed.

It is apparently the opinion of the members of the bar that they are protecting the interests of the people in seeking this amendment, but to the ordinary observer it will appear to be an act of self-protection and a selfish and unnecessary endeavor to protect the college bred lawyer at the expense of the man who has been unable to obtain a college education but who is probably better equipped with legal learning and common sense (the second qualification is more important than the first) although he may be lacking in oratorical ability or a knowledge of unnecessary Latin and useless Greek.

There is no complaint regarding the constitutional or self-made lawyer except that which originated in the minds of his dictators and I believe that the majority of persons would far rather intrust a matter of importance to such a member of the bar than one who may be more polished in manner, more brilliant in speech, but lacking in common sense and a real knowledge of the law.

Do the members of the bar who are seeking this amendment claim that the Indiana lawyer is inferior to the lawyer of any other state? Is there any one who will claim that the constitutional lawyer who is now practicing is inferior in any material way to the college man who alone would be able to pass such an examination as some states require?

It appears to me that the Bar association is making a grave mistake in urging the adoption of this amendment and they would do well to pay more attention to improving and simplifying our present code of legal procedure and should assist and not retard every man or woman who desires to enter the profession.

It will be well for the members of the bar to consider the words of one of their fellow members which he used in speaking of this proposed amendment, before the Indiana Bar association:

"The college bred lawyer who gets his start as lawyers ought to get their start, of course, feels that there can be no mistake about this sort of a proposition; and yet there are thousands and thousands of good lawyers all over Indiana who started to practice the law and made their living by it and have grown into good lawyers that never would have become lawyers in the world if there had been an examination that was rigid—one that required two years in somebody's law office before they could enter the practice other than through an examination, as is the case in Illinois and some of the other states. And there is one thing for us to think about also, and that is that the lawyers of Indiana, where this deplorable condition now exists, is the peer of the lawyers of any other state in the union."

I urge every voter to carefully consider the question before voting for this amendment, for if he does so vote he is sacrificing one more constitutional right and protecting the man who can afford a college education at the expense of his less fortunate brother.

Very truly yours,
H. M. COMPARET.

AUTO SKIDS; FIVE ARE HURT.

Anderson Men Badly Injured When Machine Turns Turtle Over Grade.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 3.—Two men were seriously injured and three painfully hurt when an automobile driven by L. C. Lambert, of this city, plunged down a grade, and, after crashing through a fence, was overturned. The party of five had been to Indianapolis, and were on their return trip when the accident happened. L. C. Lambert had relieved his brother, S. W. Lambert, the owner of the machine, at the wheel, and forgot a turn in the road. He attempted to swing the car around the corner, but it skidded, and when one wheel collapsed the machine went over the grade and through the fence. Dr. D. S. Quickel suffered three ribs torn from the ligaments and Harry Bevan suffered a similar injury. Dr. Quickel's nose was broken and his face lacerated. Dr. B. H. Reid, Samuel W. Lambert and L. C. Lambert were painfully but not seriously injured, and did not require medical attention.

The Randall hotel has now adopted the three-clerk system, and Von Harvey has taken a position with Ed H. Reed and Norman Stevens behind the desk at the hotel.

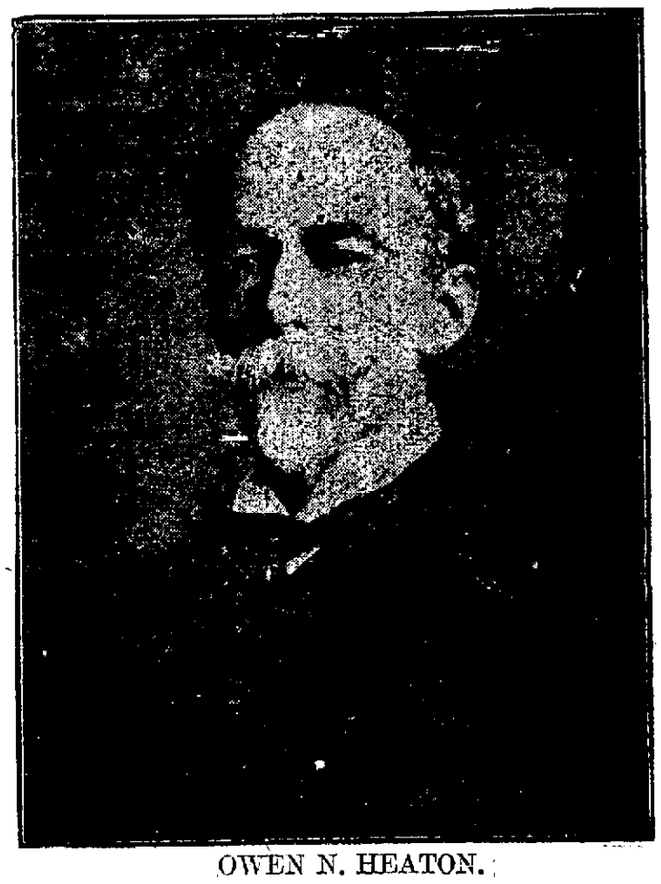
Judge Heaton Exposes Cline's Figures

My opponent, the Honorable Cyrus Cline, has prepared the statement given below, which he is causing to be distributed among the shopmen of Fort Wayne. I recognize his sharpness as a politician for not placing these statements in the hands for farmers. But Mr. Cline surely misjudges the honor and intelligence of Fort Wayne workingmen. He is only with us in campaign time. If his statements are true as to the cost of the articles named, in the year 1896, as compared with the year 1910, he cannot make any intelligent voter believe that the tariff is responsible for the increase in the cost.

The tariff duty on pork and beef and lard and veal was reduced 25 per cent.—on Bacon and ham the duty was reduced 20 per cent.—on flour and eggs and beans and potatoes and all dairy products the duty was not changed, and on no item in the list given by Mr. Cline was the duty increased by the recent tariff bill. So any increase in price cannot be laid to the tariff.

It is well known that the increased cost of many things is world-wide. The same condition exists in England, France and Germany, and all over Europe. There are various reasons given by those who have studied and investigated the question, but the reasons do not concern us so much as the facts. Below is a copy of Mr. Cline's circular:



OWEN N. HEATON.

ASK THE REPUBLICANS TO EXPLAIN ABOUT THESE STORE BILLS

Suppose you have purchased of the provision dealer in the last two weeks exactly what you purchased in the corresponding two weeks of 1896.

The republicans say: "You can't afford to disturb the present conditions by reducing the present tariff."

HEATON STANDS FOR THE PRESENT TARIFF

Heaton wants a tariff commission to revise these prices, which he knows cannot report until after the next presidential election. Meanwhile you pay the above trust prices that Heaton and his party are responsible for.

LOOK AT THESE TWO STORE BILLS. ASK THE REPUBLICANS TO EXPLAIN.

I join with Mr. Cline in the request that the laboring man consider the prices of the articles in his list in 1896 as compared with the prices in 1910. But in all fairness, Mr. Cline, let us ask the laboring man and every other good citizen to consider the demand for labor; the wages and general condition that prevailed in 1896, as compared with 1910.

How many men were idle in 1896? How many now?

What were the wages of those who were employed in 1896? What are they now?

How many men were in Coxey's army? How many in Kelley's army? How many in other armies of the unemployed in New York, Chicago and Fort Wayne? How many starving armies are there now?

How many soup houses were there in 1896? How many now?

Which is preferable—free soup as a whole meal or soup as one course of a square meal?

A FEW OTHER INTERESTING COMPARISONS

Men idle, according to Mr. Gompers, in 1896..3,000,000
Men working part time in 1896.....5,000,000
Men idle in 1910—None, if worthy and willing to work.

Treasury deficit in 1896.....$25,000,000
Treasury surplus in 1910.....$15,000,000

Value of farm in 1896.....$14,727,000,000
Value of farms in 1910.....$30,138,000,000

Value of farm products in 1896.....$2,000,000,000
Value of farm products in 1910.....$9,000,000,000

WHICH FIGURES DO YOU PREFER? WHICH POLICY DO YOU PREFER?

That which brings low prices, low wages and cheap men, or a policy of construction and attainment and progress and prosperity?

Yes, by all means, Mr. Cline, let us invite comparison of the conditions in 1910 with conditions in 1896, and you are authorized to continue to distribute your statement that Heaton stands for the conditions in 1910 as preferable to that of 1896.

We know by experience that conditions might be worse than they are now. I also believe that present conditions can be improved and I desire to be classed with the progressives in the purpose to make good conditions better.

Both the leading political parties believe in a revenue tariff tax. I believe that the protective tariff policy is essential to the welfare of the American people. I believe in the protective tariff policy measured by the cost of production at home and abroad. I believe that there is evil in our present system of making tariff laws, and that the policy of protection, so essential to our business welfare, should not be left in its execution to the uncertainty of partisan politics.

I believe in a non-partisan tariff commission such as is adopted in Germany and other strong commercial nations, whereby we can learn the facts and without delay legislate on one important schedule at a time, free from every other interest, except the general welfare of all the people. I believe that such a system is essential to the progressive and permanent prosperity of all our people.

THERE'S no special course in how to dress in the colleges and universities of this country; but it's evidently not needed; you'll find that college men as a general rule, whether undergraduates or postgraduates, are pretty apt to learn all they need about good clothes without any course of lectures.

It's a quite interesting fact, that in most of the colleges of any importance the preference for clothes is very marked. It's a fact that ought to interest you, whether you're a collage man or not; because these young fellows are pretty critical about clothes; they know a lot about good style, they're very fussy about fit and model. You can depend on it that what satisfies them has got to be pretty good stuff.

Of course, the main thing we want you to get out of this is that you can buy these clothes here; you can get them at the right kind of prices; you can get them in color, weave, pattern that will please you and be becoming to you; you can get them correct in fit.

The whole idea of the makers of these clothes seems to be to do work for the benefit of the man who is going to wear the clothes; every point where the wearer's interest is involved seems to be most carefully looked after; the fabrics are all-wool; the "insides" are of the finest quality; the styles and models are carefully designed so that the wearer shall feel that he is fashionably dressed; the tailoring is thorough;everything is done to make these clothes good for you.

That's the spirit in which we try to sell them; we mean to serve you in clothes.

All sorts of good things to wear here; shirts, neckwear, hosiery, underwear, gloves, etc., etc. All good for you.

ROSE FOE TO COLD BACILLI.

As a Preventive of Influenza Its Value is Demonstrated in London.

London, Nov. 3.—The rose as a preventive of colds and influenza is the newest idea demonstrated at the London Medical exhibition, and preference is given to the Duke of Edinburgh, a rose of a rich red color and of strong yet delicious perfume.

A vegetable antiseptic has been evolved from this rose which is made up into small aromatic lozenges. These when dissolved in the mouth are said to wage relentless war against the countless millions of those bacilli which set up the conditions known as a cold in the head. This rose antiseptic has also been placed into the cultures of the bacilli of diphtheria, pneumonia, typhoid and other diseases, and it is claimed for it that it has on every occasion routed the bacilli without quarter. It is even stated that it is only necessary to inhale the fragrance of the lozenges to obtain relief from a cold.

Mrs. Robert B. Wheeler, who was injured in an auto accident some weeks ago, will soon be able to leave St. Joseph's hospital.

UNCLE SAM MAY BE DRAWN INTO A SQUABBLE

Revolution in Honduras Likely to Require Interference.

New Orleans, Nov. 3.—Cablegrams were received here last night by American representatives in Honduras confirming the Associated Press dispatches of the revolutionary outbreak in Amapala. That the United States will within the next few days take an active part in ousting General Jose Valladares, the leader of the rebellion, from his entrenched position on the little island of Amapala is the belief generally of business men of New Orleans who are more or less interested in Central American trade. The Honduran government has a very small army and as Valladares has several hundred armed followers and is reported to have several modern machine guns, it is thought that President Davila will ask the assistance of this government in its efforts to get rid of the trouble-maker of Amapala.

The friends here of former President Manuel Bonilla assert that he has no connection with the revolt of Valladares.

Noted for his hatred of foreigners, Valladares recently publicly announced that he had named his dog "Taft" in order to show his contempt for the American government.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Martial law has been declared in Honduras as a direct result of the revolt of General Jose Valladares, the deposed commandant of Amapala, against the government, according to cable advices to the state department today from Minister McCreery at Tegucigalpa. The port of Amapala has been closed and the island is in a state of siege.

The United States gunboat Princeton is in the harbor at Amapala ready to take a hand in the revolution at the first sign of hostility toward foreigners or their interests. President Davila is preparing to send an armed force against Valladares and in event of the government's failure to restore order on the island the United States probably will be asked to interfere.

May Send Armed Force Ashore.

It would not be surprising if Commander Hayes, of the Princeton, acting under instructions from the state department, should send an armed force ashore at any time to take Valladares into custody. Navy department officials refuse to discuss the possibility of this beyond asserting that American interests will be properly safe-guarded.

Commander Hayes telegraphed the navy department today as follows:

"The commandant of Amapala has informed the foreign consuls that he has no intention of injuring foreign subjects or foreign property. There is no disorder at present."

Little faith is put in Valladares' promises by officials of the United States government and the Princeton has instructions sufficiently liberal to permit her commander to meet any situation that arises. While there are few Americans at Amapala, considerable American property passes through that port. One American concern, the Rosairo Mining company, whose gold and silver mines are located 125 miles inland, has exports and imports valued at more than $1,000,000 passing annually through Amapala.

Pauline is a Holstein-Freslan cow of registered stock. She came from the stock farm of Senator IsaacStephenson of Wisconsin, and was on the road from Kenosha, just two days.

REPUBLICANS DEMAND 4 TO 1.

Wall Street Offers One Point Less in Wagering on Dix.

New York, Nov. 3.—Backers of the republican nominee for governor were demanding 4 to 1 at the close of business in Wall street yesterday. One bet of $1,000 to $250 was made, but most of the money wagered was at 3 to 1, the prevailing odds during the session. An Exchange place broker, whose name is often connected with one of the largest banking houses in the street, had $50,000 to place on Dix at these odds.

The largest bet was one of $10,000 to $4,0000 that Mr. Dix will win, with a Broad street house placing the Dix money. At 3 to 1 a curb broker placed $3,000 on the republican candidate, and then offered $2,000 against $8,000 with not a taker in sight. One Dix man, who did better than most, got $500 and $450 against two $1,000 rolls.

On the result $2,500 even was placed that Mr. Dix will carry the state by 100,000, and $100 was bet against $1,000 that his plurality will be 150,000. Another bet of $500 to $300 was that he would have better than 75,000, while a curb admirer of John J. Delaney sought in vain for some one thinking enough of Judge Whitney's chances to wager any part of $500 at even money.

All told, it is estimated that $75,000 was wagered on the election in the street today.

The list of guests included close friends of Miss Fairbank, as well as friends of the hostess and there were a number present who did not play bridge. Frank L. Jones has returned from Charlotte, N. C., but Mrs. Jones, formerly Miss Florence Hatch, of this city, will remain south with her niece, Mrs. Charles F. Thayer, who is convalescing from a long illness of typhoid fever. If Mrs. Thayer does not improve rapidly within two weeks Mrs. Jones will bring her here.

The A. F. F. girls were pleasantly entertained last evening at a progressive supper. At each home the decorations were yellow shaded lights, flowers and autumn foliage and yellow and black ribbons. Those who participated were Misses Nora Miller, Ethel Pillers, Nora Bortner, Agnes Murphy, Ruth Kraus, Maude Jeffries and their guests, Messrs. Charley Fehling, Darrel Daniels, Jack Flinner, Fern Crick, Harry Lamb and Joe Monahan.

One of the pretty Hallowe'en parties of Monday was enjoyed by the members of the S. S. G. club at the home of Miss Cecelia Niebel, of 311 East Williams street. Stalks of corn, pumpkin lanterns and other symbols of the night were used to decorate the rooms and added to the fun. Games were enjoyed, including pedro played progressively, in which the prizes were won by Miss Genevieve Robyans and Glenn Lipps. Miss Agnes Sullivan assisted the hostess in serving the luncheon. The members of the club are Misses Emma Farnsworth, Genevieve Robyans, Glenn Lipps, Catherine Evans, Julia Sullivan and Miss Niebel. Miss Julia Sullivan will be the next hostess for the club.

Nearly four hundred young people passed a pleasant time at the Typo club dance given last evening in Trayer's hall. An indication of the popularity of the club and its many friends were one-hundred and eighty-five couples in the opening march of the dance program. The leaders were Miss Della Lepper and Raymond Duetzer. The programs were handed out by two little girls, dressed in white, Florence McManigal and Helen Knapp. Good music was furnished and all enjoyed a fine time. The club will probably give more entertainments during the winter. Officers of the Typo club are Maurice Hasley, president; Harry Linton, vice president; Oscar Bohn, second vice president; Patsy M. Griffin, secretary; J. Bert Emigh, treasurer.

Mrs. Dan Clemens, of Webster street, was given a delightful and complete surprise early last evening, when she returned from the Majestic matinee, where Mr. Clemens had rather insisted earlier in the day that she should go. During Mrs. Clemens' absence many things in the way of the surprise were accomplished and as she entered her home she was greeted not only by her daughters, Gertrude and Martha, but by a number of neighborhood and other friends, who stated that they were there for the purpose of celebrating her birthday anniversary. So successfully had the two young daughters planned things that nothing was lacking to make the party a great success in every way. There were beautiful decorations of pink roses, carnations and chrysanthemums, the supper table was laid with the best china and silver and a birthday cake had been frosted and set with tapers that were lighted at the proper time. The guests who assisted Mr. and Mrs. Clemens and the children in this good time were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. (Huntington Herald.)

"Dr. Frank Lenig officiated at the wedding of Miss Tressa Emley, daughter of County Commissioner and Mrs. Fletcher J. Emley, to Charles M. Miss Emley moved with her parents to Huntington at the time Mr. Emley moved to the city a year or so ago. Previous to that time she had always lived with her parents in Clear Creek township, attending school there. She is one of the better known young women inthe county. Mr. Stahl is a son of William O. Stahl, and a nephew of Trustee E. M. Stahl. He formerly resided in Clear Creek township, but in the last two or three years has been in the real estate business in Fort Wayne, where he is making quite a success. The romance of which the wedding Tuesday evening was the culmination started here some years ago. The couple will go to Michigan to visit Mr. Stahl's parents, after which they will make their home in Fort Wayne."

Needlework Guild.

Tomorrow is the day for all garment members of the Needlework Guild to send in their contributions of two new articles of household or hospital furnishings or children's or adults' clothing to the section presidents of the guild. The work of the organization is too well known to need much explanation. Anyone can be a garment member who would like to contribute in this way to the comfort of children in orphan asylums, or in families unable to provide suitable clothing for the sick and helpless, for small children, for the aid of all hospitals in the city, for all orphan asylums, for the use of the Visiting Nurse leage, one of the most important and non-sectarian charities in the city. Any new article that can be used in the way of clothing, any new articles of use in the hospitals, such as towels, sheets, pillowslips, bed comforters, wash cloths, hot water bags, rubber sheets and underclothing, nightgowns, especially those of canton flannel, stockings, shoes, infants' clothing, are some of the things that there is always a need of replenishing. The round up of the contributions will be held week after next.

NEW BOLSTER WRAP.

The up and down is the characteristic feature of the long bolster wrap which is now favored for evening wear.

Of course this straight, narrow cloak is worn over the extremely narrow frocks now in vogue, and in the long, slender lines women look like tall flowers on swaying stems.

This bolster wrap is made of Dutch blue cloth with a white rabbit fur collar and cuffs of the same. The confining band at the foot of the wrap slopes upward in front, where one side of the coat crosses over the other.

AT THE MAJESTIC

Way Down East.

With each recurring visit of "Way Down East" new beauties are discovered in Lottie Blair Parker's long-lived New England comedy drama. On this, the eleventh anniversary of the play's premier, the thought occurs that of all the rural dramas of modern times none has offered such a choice collection of prospective victims for the lumber man, the gold-brick vendor or the lightening rod agent, as are shown in the characters pictured in this piece. Usually in plays of this kind, referred to in the vernacular as the "rural drama," one finds a series of grossly exaggerated characters. In "Way Down East" the authoress has clung closely to nature, with the result that the play carries greater conviction than is generally found in stories of life down on the farm. Of course there can be more pleasing subjects about which to weave a theatrical tale than that of the much-wronged, surely persecuted heroine. But it seems the lot of the country born damsels to be snared by city-bred villains with smooth ways and dress suits, and so one must not blame Mrs. Parker for depending upon a much blamed female for principal climaxes. We have the country quartette, the snow storm and "Hi Holler" as a combination sugar-coating for the damsel in distress, a fact which makes her more delectable than usual. The company contains many old friends and the same careful attention to detail as in former seasons.

Polly of the Circus.

Lovers of an evening of real pleasure in the theater are promised a treat far out of the ordinary in the announcement that the record-breaking success, "Polly of the Circus," will be the attraction at the Majestic on Saturday, both afternoon and evening. No play of the last twenty years has elicited such unanimous approval from all classes as has this refreshingly told story of the romance of a pretty little circus rider and a village clergyman in the middle west, and the fact that "Polly of the Circus" is to be presented here on exactly the same scale of lavish magnitude that made memorable its season long run at the Liberty theater, New York, would seem to assure for it the largest attendance of this season. Already plans are being made for a number of large theater parties.

PLAYED RETURN ENGAGEMENT.

Large and Enthusiastic Audiences Greet "The Light Eternal."

Since its initial performances for three days at the Majestic theater in this city "The Light Eternal" company has been on a tour of some weeks in which it has met with a great degree of success and popularity. The return engagement here with two performances yesterday proved a strong enough attraction to crowd the theater both matinee and evening. It was gratifying to the company, of which Miss Eugenia Blair is the head, and to M. E. Rice, who bought the rights to the play and engaged the company, to see the interest and enthusiasm manifested at yesterday's performances. That success has been a result of the things which make for a dramatic performance of worth, beauty and good acting was plain to be seen last evening. The company, collectively and individually, shows intelligent and well directed improvement, an improvement which was expected with so clever and discriminating an artist as Miss Blair is at the head of things. The power of the religious drama when combined with a love interest so important as it is in "The Light Eternal," was felt all through the performance. Aside from its importance in stage pictures, the play has a strength that is appealing from several standpoints. Miss Blair presents the lighter parts with much delicacy and humor and her emotional work in the tragic moments bespeak the command of herself and her knowledge of histrionic art. The company gives excellent assistance, the work of Mr Lessey as Marco being especially fine.

CUTTING LIVING'S HIGH COST.

Housewife Can Eliminate Waste Only by Looking After Things Herself.

("Pilgrim's Scrip" in the American Magazine for November.)

It seems to me that the elimination of waste is nearly impossible in households where there are numerous servants; at least, I have found it so, with only one, and the waste rises in geometrical progression with the number employed. I have now been doing my own cooking for nearly a year, and I feed my family twice as well on about two-thirds the cost. A large part of the saving comes in the economical use of meat. I make a delicious dinner with a few scraps of meat that a cook would give to the dog.

Then I depend a good deal on soups, which I invent to suit my larder. A few cold baked beans, with a little tomato and a bit of meat on a bone, or a little left-over gravy, make a soup that all eat with much pleasure and it is so nourishing that it goes far to make the dinner. * * * Most people do not understand how different a soup is when it has simmered a good many hours. The soup that has been boiled fast a couple of hours will taste flat and uninteresting, whereas the same soup five hours later will have such a delicious blend of flavors that all you know is that it is nice, without being able to distinguish the ingredients. Again, it is time that counts. * * * Cooks waste the coffee and tea horribly. Mix the coffee with cold water the night before, with an eggshell, and bring it to a boil in the morning, and you do not need a great deal for a good cup of coffee. The tea in the kitchen is piled into the teapot and thrown out with but little of the goodness extracted. Another frightful waste is the coal. I use less than half as much as any girl I ever had, and my stove bakes better. I never complain of the draught, as she does or did after burning all the goodness out of her coal in the first hour after lighting.

There is no way that I know of to eliminate waste except by looking after things yourself.

CHRISTMAS BOXES.

Not in the English sense of a Christmas present, but as an early preparation for the fast-approaching season of gift-giving.

To make them, cut pieces of cardboard and cover neatly with fancy wall paper, then lace the corners with baby ribbon run through eyelets and attach a ribbon to the top, with small bows and bunches of silvered artificial holly or mistletoe.

This makes a pretty receptacle for holding homemade bonbons or other trifles.

FOR PAPER PATTERNS.

Get a large Japanese lantern, hang it in the sewing room or any other convenient place and use it to hold light paper patterns. A lantern is durable and will hold a great many patterns.

In a saucepan put one-quarter of a pound of butter, a half pint of water, a dash of cayenne, a half teaspoonful of salt. Bring to the boiling point. Quickly throw in six ounces of dry sifted pastry flour; stir until the mixture draws away from the sides of the pan; then cover and set aside until partly cool. Drop into this stiff batter one unbeaten egg and stir until well incorporated; add another egg and work in then a third and a fourth. If the eggs have been large ones this may be sufficient; if not, add a half or another whole one. The batter should be just soft enough to hold its shape when dropped from a spoon. Cover and set aside for an hour; then drop in spoonfuls on a flat buttered pan, placing them three inches apart. Bake in a slow oven; when the oven is too hot they puff up too soon, the flour does not stiffen quickly enough to hold the walls of the cells and the cakes collapse. The baking will take fully forty minutes. When done they will feel as light as a feather. When cold, split and fill with a thick cheese cream made with two tablespoonfuls of corn starch, a half teaspoonful of salt, three beaten eggs, one pint of milk, three-quarters of a cupful of grated cheese, a dash of cayenne, a teaspoonful of butter.

Stuffed Beef Heart.

Clean the heart carefully, cutting out the top of the arteries, then fill with a stuffing of bread crumbs seasoned with salt, pepper, a chopped onion and a pinch of thyme and moistened with melted beef suet. Steam for four hours, then roast for an hour and a half, basting well.

M'KINLEY SEES FINE SILVER LINING OF CLOUD

Tells Taft Congress Will Not Be Democratic and Taft Gives It Out.

Washington, Nov. 3.—President Taft has made public a letter from Representative W. B. McKinley, chairman of the republican congressional campaign committee, in which he takes a most optimistic view of republican prospects at next Tuesday's election.

Mr. McKinley has been optimistic from the very outset of the campaign, and his letter to the president, regarding the situation is enthusiastic to a marked degree. He declares that what some people recognized as a democratic year in July will turn out to be a republican year in November. Mr. McKinley indicates that, in his opinion, the democrats have not the slightest chance of gaining a majority in the next house.

The making public of the McKinley letter, it is said, will be the last act of the president in the present campaign. It was reported that Mr. Taft might write a letter on the New York state situation, but no confirmation could be obtained at the white house. Mr. McKinley's letter follows:

"Chicago, Oct. 28, 1910.

"Dear Mr. President—It gives me great pleasure to inform you that every sign points to republican control of the house of representatives in the Sixty-second congress. This information is based upon what I believe to be reliable reports from practically every one of the so-called 'doubtful' districts. We have made and are making substantial gains in districts which were lost in the election two years ago by a narrow margin.

Different This Month.

"Three months ago, pessimistic republicans and optimistic democrats expressed the belief that this was a democratic year. Their prediction was not shared by yourself and others charged with responsibility for carrying forward the republican campaign.

"I am pleased to advise you that there has been a decided change in sentiment in the last few weeks. Democratic hopes are fading and republicans generally are now enthusiastic in their belief that, while this may have been a democratic year in July, it is a republican year in November.

"In your letter to me of August 20, 1910, you state that the question was not what complexion of republicanism one prefers, but whether it is better for the country to have a republican party control the legislature for the next two years, and further redeem its promises, or to enable a democratic majority in the house, either to interpose a veto on the republican measures or to formulate and pass bills to carry out democratic principles. Your clear and just analysis of republican principles in your brief outline of the great work to which your administration is committed was adopted by the republican congressional committee as the slogan of this campaign.

"The differences within the party which were manifested in the two sessions of the present congress have been quieted on the basis of your letter, and a militant and united party is approaching the biennial election with confidence of deserved victory. As you well predicted, the party as a whole is showing itself practical and patriotic in subordinating individual opinion in order to secure real progress.

Party Lines Drawn.

"Following your suggestion it has been the aim of this committee to emphasize the differences in the governmental efficiency and capacity of the republican and democratic parties. We have sought to make this a campaign of education, and, while in some districts the real issues are obscured by local questions and personal animosities, I am convinced that our literature and our speakers have brought home to the voters as a whole a realization of the fact that democratic success in the congressional elections this year would be a staggering blow to national prosperity, would impede if not prevent the enactment of all useful and progressive legislation and would make legitimate business the plaything of politics for two years.

"I take this opportunity to thank you for your genuine and very best co-operation with the committee in this campaign. We have made a clean, straightforward fight for the great principles of the republican party, and I am looking with the greatest possible confidence to the result. Sincerely yours,

"Wm. B. McKinley, Chairman."

When the letter was given out it was accompanied by the official statement that Mr. Taft would take no further active part in the present campaign.

MULE TRADE STARTED HIM.

Then It Took Twelve Hours and a Shock to Stop His Laughing.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Nov. 3.—Trading a mule for a "shave tail" horse appealed to the humor of S. H. Scharpp of this city, and he began laughing. He laughed ten minutes, an hour, with the ears rolling down his cheeks and still he didn't stop. His friends, becoming alarmed, summoned a physician, but the physician couldn't stop the hearty "ha, ha." When six hours had passed and Scharpp was still convulsed with laughter another physician was called and still the horse trader's merriment ruled.

Scharpp was proclaimed the champion marathon laugher, but that did not stop him and an electric battery was brought into play. Just as the merry laugh had rounded out twelve hours, the trader was given a heavy electric shock, the "ha, ha" ceased and Scharpp fell over exhausted. It was thought for a time that the man would die, but today he shows no ill effects from the long laugh.

Took Long Time to Change Customs of a National Game

"It takes a long time to get old and conservative ideas out of the heads of ball players. Even the most progressive magnates are the most firmly rooted in some of their antiquated theories, and they don't wake up to the march of time till some other fellow pulls a bunch of new stuff upon them."

Uncle Anson, who certainly lasted longer in a managerial berth than any one before or since his day, thus theorized between shots of a billiard game.

"One of the oldest of the theories," continued the Grand Old Man, "and one that stuck the longest, was this: That it was best for the home team, having the choice of innings, to take first bat. That idea lasted for twenty years or more. It lasted firmly rooted, till some fellow woke up, and now the habit of taking the last bat is as solidly established as if it were so much baseball law. When the gong rings for the battle now you invariably see the home team streaking for the field, while the visitors turn to the pile of bats exactly as if the laws of the game compelled such doings. Do you ever see the captain of one team hesitate, pause as he passes the other captain and engage him in debate as to whether he wants outs or ins?

"And yet, under baseball law, he could do so, and the home captain has the say. For twenty seasons, however, it has become immutable custom for the home team to take the field, and no visiting captain would even think of asking about it. Should a visiting leader, on his way to the bats, be stopped by the home captain with a shout of 'You fellows take the field—we are going to bat first,' he would probably have a fit of apoplexy.

"Taking the last innings, so as to have the advantage of the chance for a final rally, is the understood custom. And yet, for many seasons, it was the other way. The home team always took first bat, and simply for an utterly absurd survival of the traditions that surrounded backless ball.

"When our laddies played on the vacant lots and had only one ball to pound around—as was the case in the village or townlot games—the first crack at the new ball was considered the greatest thing imaginable. It was figured as a vast advantage because several runs could be whaled off the shining leather, and by the time the other team got to work the sphere would be black and hard to hit.

"When the game grew into professional proportions and inclosed arenas this idea still stuck. For years and years the home club took first bat as a matter of course, and not one of the mossbacks ever seemed to figure it out that where the ball was continually going over the fence it made little or no difference who had first crack at the first globule. New balls, of course, were always coming into play, and the second team at bat would get just as many of them as the first team. Therefore, the momentary advantage of the whack at the first ball could in no way compensate for the advantage of last innings. And yet year after year, home teams took first bat, and they kept up the custom till within the memory of men now in the game. Yes, I was a mossback, too. I always took the first bat when we played on the lake front, and for several years at the Congress street grounds as well.

"One day somebody woke up. And from that time on the home team has always taken a last bat, and, I think, always will."

Aided to Win by American

MR. CLAUDE GRAHAME-WHITE.

DREXEL IS CHARGED AS TRAITOR TO AMERICA

The Aviator Said to Have Thrown Race for Cup to Englishman.

New York, Nov. 3.—Not only is J. Armstrong Drexel in danger of being blacklisted by all the great aeronautical organizations of the world, but he may have to face the charge of having played the traitor to America by a deliberate attempt to "throw" the Bennett cup race of last week to the British contestant.

If expelled from the Aero club of America he will be an outlaw of affiliated clubs. Luckily for the glory of American sport, John B. Moisant, the daring Chicago aviator, stepped into the breach in the last half hour and gallantly saved the honor of second place in the great international race.

It was suggested yesterday to Cortland F. Bishop, president of the Aero club of America, that there were all sorts of stories floating about regarding the James Gordon Bennett race, and that some had gone so far as to say that charges of throwing the race had been made.

"That is a very serious charge to make. It has not been made," he said. "I need hardly say, however, that there were some queer doings in the hour before the start of the international race. Many witnesses will have to be examined before our action can be made public. We do not intend to make any charges that we cannot substantiate."

The Charges Against Drexel.

Here is the story of Drexel's conduct as told by one of the governors of the club:

"The board of governors feel, in view of all the circumstances, that Mr. Drexel's failure to fly on the morning of the race, when the weather conditions were ideal, is justly a matter of inquiry. Here we have the spectacle of one of America's cup defenders attacking the very organization of which he is a member and whose colors he was chosen to uphold. If in doing this he was actuated by the sincere conviction that the Aero club was unsportsmanlike, the public ought to know. If there was some other motive, equal publicity should be given to that matter also.

"In the first place, be it understood, the Aero club of America, as an organization, had nothing whatever to do with any event of the aviation meet save the Gordon Bennett trophy. The Statue of Liberty flight was managed by the aviation committee entirely, and was simply a feature of the meet arranged by that body to add interest to the international contest in which the Aero club was directly concerned.

Demanded $10,000 for Flight.

"Several months ago when the subject of selecting the aviators to attend the meet was broached, it was decided to enter into negotiations with Mr. Drexel. It was decided that every aviator coming over here to compete should be given $2,000 to defray his expenses. When this sum was mentioned to Mr. Drexel he said it was not enough. He replied through one of the largest banking houses in New York—that he wanted $10,000. He said $2,000 of this sum ought to go to his manager, McArdle, who is interested with him in a flying school in England.

"The managers hesitated about giving him this sum of money. Unfortunately I had dwelt upon the urgency of having Mr. Drexel here, there being no question but that he would prove a great feature of the contest. We all knew that Drexel could fly; that he was an expert aviator and that his high standing would lend him prominence.

"Mr. Cortland F. Bishop, undoubtedly mentioned something of all this in his letters to Mr. Drexel, for he insisted that he must be paid $10,000 to come over here.

Has Faith in Drexel.

"An outsider who is not a member of the Aero club but who is one of the best fellows in the world, finally went down into his pocket and contributed a sum of four figures to make up the $10,000.

"So then, finally we had Mr. Drexel with us and naturally expected great things of him. He told us a day or two before the Gordon Bennett flight was flown that he would defend the cup with his very life if need be, and we believed him implicitly. He told us that his Bleriot could fly something like 56 or 57 miles as it stood then, and that, after he had attached the racing wings, it probably could go 67 miles an hour or more.

"So we relied on Drexel because, first, he was entered on the roster of the club as an American, and second, because he had a Bleriot monoplane.

"Then the morning of the race dawned. Grahame-White went out and so did Le Blanc and others. We rushed around to see what was the matter with the Americans and Drexel, but there was nothing doing. Drexel was not prepared to go out, and neither was Hamilton. This was most unfortunate, since the weather conditions were all that could be desired, and Drexel, had he flown, could at least have made a showing in behalf of the colors which he had been selected to defend.

Queer Conduct Alleged.

"Then came the afternoon of the race, when, finally, Mr. Drexel did go out. He made a quarter of the course and also came down. I went to him and all the explanation he gave to me was that he almost 'hit a chimney pot.'

"But prior to his starting, which was very late, as every one knows, he had had a talk with Allan A. Ryan, the son of Thomas F. Ryan. Mr. Ryan told him for heaven's sake to go out and make a showing for America. He said if he didn't go it seemed that first and second place must go to England. Mr. Ryan says that Drexel replied by pointing out that it was a very bad afternoon, that the weather was anything but what it should be and that the treacherous gusts of wind made flying a very hazardous affair. He said that, in view of all this, the aviators who risked their necks ought to be given an additional payment.

"Mr. Ryan refused absolutely to go down into his pocket any more and told Mr. Drexel so. This was at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, with the time limit gun a half-hour off. Mr. Drexel finally went out, despite Mr. Ryan's refusal to make an additional payment to the aviators, with the result as above stated. He made a short trip and came down because he 'almost hit a chimney pot.'

Moisant Saved Day.

"After Mr. Drexel came down and gave it up as a bad job after so brief a trial, John B. Moisant went out and fought his way through to second place, and but for his grit and willingness and sportsmanlike conduct, the United States would not have been anywhere at all. Mr. Moisant also flew a Bleriot and he continued to stay up in the air, despite the treacherous air currents, until after dark.

"The Aero club regrets that such a controversy has arisen, but it does not intend to rest quietly under the effort to besmirch it. We shall insist on all the facts becoming known."

Ed Harkenrider showed the best form and with 210 for a starter he climbed to 235 in his second game and took the honors from his brother who gave him a hot chase all the way through. Eddie Hecht started with 212 and made high for his team, but Stang rolled the second and third games and took the average. The scores:

BOXING TOMORROW NIGHT.

Coakley and Kinney Will Hook Up Once More—Good Card.

Tomorrow night at Saengerbund hall Frank Coakley of Fort Wayne, and Milt Kinney of St. Louis, will be hooked up for another ten-round go with gloves and an even more interesting contest than the last meeting of these two is promised. Kinney's cleverness and hard-hitting and Coakley's superb gameness three weeks ago gave the fans as good a run for their money as they ever had here. Coakley has improved the line, giving himself some solids and he expects to make a much better showing. A good preliminary card is promised.

DR. BLACKSTONE TO LOCATE IN FORT WAYNE AGAIN.

Dr. Blackstone and Mrs. Blackstone and their daughter, arrived in Fort Wayne yesterday and the doctor announced today that he proposes to locate permanently in this city in the practice of medicine.

The doctor will open an office at No. 119 West Wayne street, Hackett building, Saturday next and expects to make public his specialties.

Dr. Blackstone for many months has been located at Terre Haute and his practice there has been successful, but he says he shares with his family a longing for Fort Wayne and its associations and he means to stay here in the future.

C. H. Ehrman, of Stony Island, a fireman on the Nickel Plate, is in the city visiting his father.

"LEFTY" RUSSELL STUNG.

"Lefty" Russell, who was purchased by Philadelphia from Baltimore for the reported price of $12,000, made a costly mistake when he kicked over the traces because the salary offered him did not suit. As a result of his stand against the amount Connie Mack thought he was worth, the young pitcher did not share in the division of the world's series receipts, which amounted to over $2,000 per man.

Russell's end of the money would have amounted to considerably more than the difference in what he wanted in salary and what Mack offered. But the young pitcher was too shortsighted to see what his action in leaving the team would result in, and he must be both sadder and wiser now than he was a month ago.

Russell pitched one game for the Athletics, winning it easily from Boston. It is understood that after the game he made salary demands which Mack would not listen to. He then left the team, and as a result did not share in the world's series money.

All the other members of the team shared alike in the prize money. Even Derrick, a recruit picked up in the south, who is far from ready for big company got just as much money as did Eddie Collins out of the series, so that it is easily to be seen that Russell overlooked a chance in letting his back account when he refused to accept the salary Mack offered him.

LONG SCHEDULE IS THE UNDOING OF THE CUBS

Murphy Helped to Force It on the League and It Came Back.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 3.—Opponents of the protracted schedule, Charles Ebbets of Brooklyn, and Charles W. Murphy of Chicago, forced on the National league last winter, are rejoicing over the defeat of the Cubs in the world's series last week. They claim the lengthy schedule was the primary cause for the downfall of the National league champions. Although the schedules of the American and National leagues were on the same number of games, the National's schedule was stretched out for an extra week and games that easily could have been played off earlier in the season were postponed until the final week, thus delaying the start of the world's championship just a week.

It was just what the Athletics needed before they tackled the Cubs in the big series, the open week caused by wise heads of the American league to get together to figure out some way of getting the Philadelphia men into better shape, so they would not go stale before facing Chance and his men. Both teams had an easy finish in the regular season and both were a little off color in their work.

Then Ban Johnson and Jimmy McAleer hit up on the idea of playing an all-star combination against the Mackmen for the open week, and that series of games put the easterners on edge for the clash with the Cubs, who were having an easy canter for the final week of their season with the St. Louis Cardinals. The all-star team, headed by McAleer, is given the credit everywhere for putting the Athletics in condition to wallop the daylights out of the veteran Cubs. If the National league had closed its season at the same time as the American league the Cubs would have been in as good or a little better shape than the Athletics and the story of the big series might have been a different one.

When the all-stars faced the Athletics in the first game of the series week before last the Mackmen were on the verge of going stale. The great pitching of Johnson, Walsh and White gave them just the kind of practice that they needed to get their batting eyes in shape. It was tough for the American league champions to suffer defeat each day at the hands of the stars, but it did just exactly what the promoters of the series figured, stirred up the fighting blood in the players as well as to give them the hardest kind of practice.

Tidbits of Sporting News

Ad Wolgast has bought a small farm near Cadillac, Mich., and will engage in raising sheep.

The Boston Americans have turned Pitcher Kenworthy over to Jack Hendricks at Denver. Jack is getting one sweet all around ball player in the Zanesville leaver, and he should make a hit out with the grizzlies.

Edward M. Lewis who, as "Ted" Lewis, cut quite a figure as a pitcher of the Boston National league team some years ago, has just been nominated for congress by the democrats of the First district of Massachusetts. Lewis has been assistant professor in Williams college since 1906. He graduated from that institution in 1896.

Alvin Nally, the hustling little outfielder, who has been the property of President William Armour for the past two years, was sold to Newark of the Ohio State league Monday and will play with that team in 1911 unless he is purchased by some larger and faster organization. Nally was purchased by Armour in 1909 from Charleroi, Pa., to fill the gap in right field which was made when the world-famed Sox Seybold made such a miserable showing. Nally made a good impression on the fans during the first week of his stay but the A. A. twirlers soon found his weakness, a fast high one, and the little fellow's hitting dropped off to almost nothing. Armour farmed him out to Dayton who in turn sent him to Newark in the Ohio league where he has been ever since. President Meade in view of the youngster's good work was anxious to purchase him from the Dayton club and accomplished his object Monday.

A post-season series for the western football championship is urged between Minnesota and the winner of Saturday's Indiana-Illinois game. The Suckers and Hoosiers both will have equal claim to the distinction with the Gophers.

Leach Cross will take on Jack Dorman at the Fairmount Athletic club in New York Friday night. Cross should come away with this in easy fashion.

BIG SMOKE A SPELLBINDER.

Jack Johnson Does Cart Tail Stunt for Democrats in New York.

New York, Nov. 3.—Jack Johnson, heavyweight pugilist, went into the fifteenth congressional district yesterday making dire threats to beat the republican candidate for congress, Assemblyman William Bennet. Not with his fists, to be sure, but with knockout democratic arguments and short-arm jabs of wit and eloquence to be delivered from the tail of a cart.

"Lil Arthur" will furnish all these and Thomas G. Patten, Mr. Bennett's democratic opponent, will provide the cart, the red lights and the street corners.

In the Fifteenth the negro vote is large and may decide the election. There are 8,000 negro votes there and the democratic friends of Mr. Patten expect John Arthur Johnson to get them.

Johnson began his campaign last night, speaking from a truck in Fifty-ninth street. His whirlwind speaking tour will continue until election day.

Mr. Otto Paul, Milwaukee, Wis., says Foley's Honey and Tar is still more than the best. He writes us, "All those that bought it think it is the best for coughs and colds they ever had and I think it is still more than the best. Our baby had a bad cold and it cured him in one day. Please accept thanks." Dreier Bros.

SPECIALIST

I Cure Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic Diseases

FREE EXAMINATION AND REDUCED FEES

For the purpose of enabling the thousands of sufferers to obtain the services of a skilled specialist and to prove the advantages of my modern methods in the cure of Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic diseases, I will make an exceptionally low fee in all cases I accept for a cure between now and Nov. 12. This is an exceptional opportunity that you cannot afford to neglect if the cost is any object to you, and is especially intended for those who cannot afford to pay the regular prices for skilled work.

Others Treat, I Cure.

This is an age of progress. In the last few years many inventions have been produced that have very materially advanced the world's progress. This has been made possible by subdividing the work and specializing in order to give more time and study to the perfection of details. This is absolutely necessary in order to fully develop any given line of work; as the deeper we go into the study of any problem the more intricate and complicated it becomes until at last it becomes too much for one man to develop, and then must be again divided. Not long ago electricity, and its uses, were considered comparatively simple. Edison, seeing vast possibilities in it, began a close study, and his inventions together with those who have followed up this line of work have produced results so wonderful that they have revolutionized the whole world.

What is true in mechanics is true in all other industries. Not long ago it was supposed that the general practitioner of medicine was capable of thoroughly handling all diseases; but as we progressed it was found that the diseases were so numerous and their proper treatment so complicated that it was impossible for any one man to successfully cope with them all; hence it became necessary in order to give the proper time and study to them, to specialize on a single disease or group of diseases, which on account of their location or relationship were naturally allied to one another.

I have for years made a special study of PELVIC, NERVOUS and CHRONIC DISEASES and have perfected methods that will cure these diseases which a short time ago were thought to be incurable. There are many thousands of people today that are living lives of suffering and torture, because of some deep seated and chronic affliction that will not yield to the ordinary methods of treatment. Hundreds of satisfied patients in and around Fort Wayne have testified to my ability to cure these DEEP SEATED diseases, and are now well and happy. WHY NOT YOU? My charges are as reasonable as any one could expect for honest scientific work, and what are a few dollars compared with good health?

If you had the wealth of Croesus and all the worldly goods that money could buy, without health you would be miserable. I have been in Fort Wayne a good while and have established a permanent residence here, and the hundreds of successful Cures I have made since coming here, and the fact that I never accept for treatment any case I think incurable, has established a confidence in the public that any doctor would be proud of.

As a matter of comfort to yourself, do you think you can afford to suffer longer when you can be cured? As a matter of business you know that you can not.

Why suffer longer? Why not call at my office now and be convinced? Get rid of the shackles of disease and enjoy life as you should. If you can be cured, I will cure you. If you cannot be cured I will tell you so, as I not only have no time to waste on incurable diseases, but I absolutely do not want money for something I do not do. I can give you plenty of references among some of the best people in Fort Wayne and within a radius of one hundred miles. Many doctors are sending me their difficult cases, knowing that their patients will receive proper treatment. Can any references be better?

I learn the exact condition of the rectum, the bladder and every organ of the genito-urinary system. This in itself is of the highest importance, inasmuch as a broken-down nervous system and many more of the troubles of the STOMACH, LIVER, HEART, KIDNEYS, ETC., are reflex and are the direct results of some PELVIC LESION OR DISEASE.

VARICOCELE, STRICTURE, RUPTURE, PILES, FISTULA, ETC., cured without knife and without detention from business.

BLOOD POISON—I use only the most advanced methods in the treatment of blood poison and kindred diseases.

ECZEMA and other skin diseases quickly cured.

PROSTATIC ENLARGEMENT results from inflammation. I reduce the enlargement and have been able to cure about 90 per cent. of the cases.

TUMOR CULTIVATED TO FIND A CURE FOR CANCER

Physicians Study Evolution of Tissues Growing Outside Body.

New York, Nov. 3.—Tumors have been cultivated outside of the body by Drs. Alexis Carrel and Montrose T. Burrows, of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, and they believe that the methods which they have pursued will be a valuable addition to the means of studying the problem of cancer.

As has been told, they have already reported to the medical profession that tissues can be made to grow outside of the body, and they now present a second note on this subject in the current number of the Journal of the American Medical association.

"We have succeeded," they write, "in cultivating a very malignant sarcoma (tumor) outside of the body. The purpose of the experiment was to develop a general method which would permit a study of the tumor tissue under known conditions and to observe living cancer cells at every instant of their growth."

It was found that the growth of the tissues was very rapid. At the end of twenty-four hours the surface of one of the new tissues was found to be sixteen times that of the original fragment. The sarcamtous cells were cultivated in series so that every step in their progress could be determined. The physicians present a technical analysis of their investigations day by day, using fowl sarcoma which had been propagated for more than a year as the basis of their experiments.

"These results," they concluded, "show that sarcomatous tissue grows luxuriantly outside of the organism; that a second generation can be produced by the cells grown in the first culture, and that the whole process can be observed with ease at every instant of its evolutions. It is probable that the malignant tumors of the human organism can in a similar manner be caused to grow outside of the body. The method, therefore, will be a valuable addition to our means of studying the problem of cancer."

Although these reports from the laboratories of the Rockefeller Institue show no definite results as applied to cancer which attacks man, physicians are looking forward with interest for a demonstration of the practical value of the experiments in combating disease.

A HOUSEHOLD MEDICINE

To be really valuable must show equally good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether for children or grown persons, Foley's Honey and Tar is best and safest for all coughs and colds. Dreier Bros.

REAL COLD STORAGE QUAIL.

(Houston Chronicle.)

Somewhere, deep in the frosty recesses of one of the Houston cold storage establishments, reposes all that was mortal of fifty-nine quail, which will, when the legal mills of Harris county have ground the grist to which those quail pertain, be removed and presented with due formality to one or another of the local hospitals. And thereby hangs a tale.

One sunny Sunday afternoon twelve months ago a youth whose home is in Galveston marched proudly up Main street in Houston, carrying over his shoulder a string of fifty-nine quail, birds which had fallen as trophies of a busy day of hunting. But the progress of the hunter up the Houston thoroughfare was arrested—in fact, he himself was arrested—and he was taken to the county keep on a charge of violating the state game laws, of which he had been in woeful ignorance. If he had known that twenty-five birds made the limit of legal shooting for a single day it is pretty certain that he wouldn't have exhibited the prima facie evidence of his own guilt. But there it was, and the penalty included a short imprisonment in jail, from five to thirty days.

The fight to avoid that sentence hasn't been finished yet, and in the meanchile those quail, the evidence in the case, are on ice. When the case is settled, if it ever is, the court will be at liberty to present the birds to a charitable institution for the benefit of the inmates. Probably, despite the fact that they have been with the departed for a year already, they will be perfectly good to eat—but the question—you may put it to yourself—remains: Would you care to eat them if you know how old they are?

MONUMENT FOR DEAD.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 3.—A huge granite boulder arrived Tuesday from the quarries at Barre, Vermont, and was erected over the last resting place of the late P. H. Clugston, in the Linvill cemetery. It weighed 7,500 pounds and was entirely in the rough, except for his name cut on one side of the stone.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 3.—Attorney Cassius J. Coats, of Butler, whose mind has been waivering for some time, was taken into custody Tuesday evening by Deputy Sheriff John Hoff and brought to the county jail. His condition of late causes his friends great anxiety.

WANTS HIS OLD COMRADES TO READ THIS.

S. C. Murphy, Fort Wayne, Ind., a veteran of the civil war, desires his old comrades to know the contents of this letter. "For three or four years I have suffered from kidney trouble. My back ached severely and I had to get up frequently at night and was very dizzy upon arising in the morning. The black spots before my eyes made me imagine they were flies. I was recommended to try Foley Kidney Pills and the results were immediate. The pain left my back, I had no more dizziness, my kidney action was normal and I attribute my cure to the sole use of Foley Kidney Pills." Dreier Bros.

ATTORNEY IS DEMENTED.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 3.—Attorney R. E. Gates arrived home Monday evening from the St. Joseph hospital at Fort Wayne, where he was confined for about two weeks taking treatment for his diseased limb. He will not be able to leave his home for several days.

FORMER LEGISLATOR DIES.

Jacob H. Fleece Passes Away at Home in North Salem.

North Salem, Ind., Nov. 3. Jacob H. Fleece, 81 years old, died yesterday at his home here, closing a life during which he became a figure of prominence through central Indiana, especially by a career of public usefulness. In the fifty-third, fifty-fourth and fifty-fifth sessions of the Indiana legislature Mr. Fleece was a member of the house of representatives. He served during the civil war as captain of Company A, Fifty-first volunteer infantry. Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Christian church in North Salem, of which Mr. Fleece was a prominent member for more than fifty years. A widow and three children, S. NEW AUTOMATIC BLOCK SIGNAL

MACHINIST LULEY RESUMED OLD JOB

Quits City Fire Department to Go Back to Pennsy Shops.

This morning twelve miles of automatic block signals were put in operation on the Western division of the Pennsylvania. The tracks covered by it extend from Crestline to Bucyrus and make a continuous automatic block signal from the latter city to Pittsburg, a distance of 201 miles. As rapidly as possible the system will be extended westward until it covers the entire Western division, making an automatic block system 369 miles long. This is one of the important and costly improvements the Pennsylvania commenced two or three years ago and has been working upon it since.

TO ADJUST MATTERS.

A special meeting of the enginemen on the Peru division of the Wabash was held in the office of Road Foreman of Engines King, at Peru, a few days ago for the purpose of arriving at a thorough understanding of the assignment of mileage between the engineers and firemen of the Peru and Decatur divisions. The question did not affect the line east of Peru, but was of considerable moment to the men running between Peru and Decatur. There are 101 miles of territory on the Peru division west and seventy-two miles on the Decatur division over which Peru-Decatur engineers, firemen and trainmen run.

WILL NOMINATE CANDIDATES.

A. G. Porter lodge, No. 141, B. L. F. & E., will have a meeting tonight at which a part of the business will be the placing of candidates for the various offices in the field. It is the wish of the officers that there be a full attendance. Election is by mail and continues over a period of two or three weeks in order that all entitled to a vote may have opportunity to become thoroughly acquainted with the candidates.

RUCH FAMILY RECOVERING.

Quarantine will soon be raised from the home of F. J. Ruch and that gentleman, who has not been within his home for five weeks, will be permitted to return there. Five of the children had scarlet fever. Three have fully recovered and the other two are said to have passed the critical stage of the disease and are rapidly recovering. Mr. Ruch is a pipefitter at the Pennsylvania shops.

ENGINEER ON SICK LIST.

Engineers W. Krouse, D. H. Wilbert, G. W. Gribb and Martin Stafford, of the Pennsylvania, are sick and off duty. Mr. Stafford has gone to Denver to stay indefinitely. He suffers with asthma and when the attack is unusually severe and prolonged he goes west, where he finds relief. He came back from one of these trips to Denver four months ago.

ACTING STOREKEEPER.

A. J. Sewing, supply agent of the Wabash, is temporarily looking after the duties of storekeeper of the Peru and Detroit divisions of the system during the term of disability of H. W. Hurst, the division storekeeper. Mr. Hurst resides in St. Louis. Mr. Hurst, it will be remembered, had one of his arms broken as he was attempting to crank an automobile two weeks ago.

GONE TO WISCONSIN WOODS.

Emil Jamey, the Pennsylvania engineer, and erstwhile deer hunter, left yesterday for the wilds of Wisconsin, where he will spend two or three weeks hunting for big game. Last year Engineer Jamey was successful on an expedition of this kind to Wisconsin and he hopes to repeat it this year.

PREPARING FOR A BRIDE.

TEMPORARY WAITING STATION.

The Pennsylvania is having erected near the east end of the passenger platform at the depot a 9x110 feet shed for protection to passengers who are waiting for the trains. The building will be only temporary, to serve until the new passenger station is erected and opened to business.

HAD A STAG PARTY.

Last night Trace W. Bauer, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, was host at a stag party in which the guests were thirty or forty of his personal friends, many of them his shopmates. Cigars, music and luncheon aided in the enjoyment of the occasion.

HAND BADLY CUT.

J. F. Romary, of the Bass boiler shop, will be unable to work for a few days as the result of an accident. Tuesday a piece of boiler plate fell upon one of his hands, cutting a painful gash in the back of the member.

RETURNS TO THE SHOPS.

John Luley, a machinist, for some time employed in the city fire department, took employment at the Pennsylvania shops this morning. He worked there in the tool room four or five years ago.

GONE TO THE HOSPITAL.

Philip Betz, a Wabash switchman, who has been ailing for some time, went to the Peru hospital this morning to have a surgical operation performed upon his throat. The operation is not of a serious character.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

S. Pittsford and J. W. Oetting are new employes at the Pennsylvania boiler shop.

After an illness of a week Fireman C. A. Perry has returned to his duties on the G. R. & I.

Supt. J. B. McKim, who had been ill a few days, was able to get down to his office this morning. He suffers from a severe cold.

Engineer J. O. McClellan resumed work on the Pennsylvania this morning. He had been visiting friends out of the city two weeks.

A. L. Freiburger, an apprentice, was transferred from the Pennsylvania round house to the machine shop this morning.

The Erie shops at Huntington are again running with a full complement of men. There were a number suspended October 25 on account of the appropriation having been exhausted.

Charles B. Nelson has been appointed assistant master mechanic of the Lake Shore shops at Elkhart. He was formerly round house foreman at that point.

Thomas Potter, foreman of the cabinet room, and D. A. Wolford, of the blacksmith department of the Pennsylvania shops, are sick and off duty today.

Frank Jamey, the Pennsylvania engineer, whose wedding was mentioned by The Sentinel a few days ago, has gone east on a pleasure trip with his bride and expects to be absent about four weeks.

Foreman E. V. Epley, of the Pennsylvania, is suffering from a huge boil on one of his hands, which disables him. He has gone to the home of his parents in Ada, Ohio, to remain until he is able to work.

Engineer S. P. Speece, of the Pennsylvania, who has been ill for two weeks, is out and was down town today for the first time since the attack came on. He has not reported for work, however.

J. Farrell, chief clerk in the division storekeeper's office of the Erie at Huntington, will be appointed road supervisor of the Chicago division, succeeding John J. Scanlon, who will resign to take employment with another company.

Mrs. Stetter and Miss Paula Stetter, wife and daughter respectively of Louis J. Stetter, of the Pennsylvania tank shops, have gone to Preble, Ind., to spend several days with Mrs. Stetter's brothers, who reside on farms in Adams county.

Charles H. Watkins, John E. Hopkins, Charles E. Moyer and Vern Moyer took employment at the east shops of the Pennsylvania this morning and Leo Dunlfon, a hammer operator, took employment at the blacksmith shop. Dunlfon was formerly a driver for Coverdale and Archer.

The Wabash elevator at Shadeland, the first station west of Lafayette, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. The structure contained a large amount of grain and the loss amounts to several thousands of dollars. The origin of the fire has not been determined.

Harry J. Wilkin, a Wabash freight conductor, was killed a few days ago at Honey Bend by falling under his train. The deceased formerly ran in and out of Peru, often over the Fort Wayne division, and was known by a number of the company's employes in this city.

Harry E. Sutton, formerly with the Fort Wayne Electric works, and Nicholas Plein, formerly with the Inland Steel company, at Indiana Harbor, took employment at the Pennsylvania shops this morning. C. Chapman, for two years employed there, resigned this morning to take employment elsewhere.

Because of a lack of material and being ahead of some of the other departments, the meter testing and assembling department of the laboratory at the Fort Wayne Electric works were placed upon an eight hour working day, to continue until normal conditions are reached, which will be in a few days as the plant is very busy otherwise.

Alpha B. Banta, a Wabash freight brakeman, slipped off the pilot of an engine while riding ahead at Foosland to throw a switch to a siding upon which the train was going. His body was cut in two by the wheels. The accident was not known until the other members of the train crew found the mangled remains. Banta resided at Decatur and had been working on the railroad less than six weeks.

EXPLOSION QUIZ GOES ON.

California Labor Leaders Before Los Angeles Grand Jury.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 3.—Prominent San Francisco members and leaders of the labor unions of California appeared before the Los Angeles special grand jury today in answer to the summons from that body to tell what they knew regarding the movements of certain persons suspected of guilty knowledge of the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times. Mrs. G. H. Ingersoll, of San Francisco, a friend of Mrs. Belle Lavin, the San Francisco lodging house keeper, who is held in the Los Angeles county jail, also is on hand.

Old Men Retired

Industrial Concern Will Engage Only Young Men

HOW TO LOOK YOUNG IS A PROBLEM THAT CONFRONTS MILLIONS OF MEN.

In these days of strenuous competition when dividends count for more than men, the man who retains his youth is the man who holds his job the longest.

That is why one of the most successful dermatologists in Paris has warned young men to take good care of the hair. If you grow bald at 30 or 35 or even when you are older, that bald spot will, so far as appearance goes, add 10 years to your life.

Men who have hair should by all means keep it. In later years it may mean a livelihood to yourself and family.

Dandruff means falling hair; falling hair means baldness. Stop falling hair and dandruff now. Go to Meyer Bros. Co. and get a large 50 cent bottle of Parisian Sage. They will guarantee it to stop falling hair; to drive out all dandruff and kill the dandruff germs, or money back.

Remember that the man with a bald head who seeks a position is handicapped at the start. Parisian Sage will make hair grow, will give it a lustrous appearance that denotes health and youthfulness. For sale by Meyer Bros. Co. and druggists everywhere. Girl with Auburn hair on every bottle.

MEYER COMPLETES A 10,000 MILE TOUR FOR NAVY

Travels Ten Thousand Miles on Pacific and Gulf Coasts.

Caimanera, Cuba, Nov. 3.—George von L. Meyer, the American secretary of the navy, is homeward bound today, having completed a 10,000 mile tour of the Pacific and gulf naval stations. He is to be at Hamilton, Mass., intime to vote next Tuesday.

The secretary sailed last evening, after making an inspection of the naval station at Guantanamao.

Through an agreement with the republic of Cuba, the United States holds certain tracts on the island for use as naval stations. One is at Guantanamao bay, in the southern part of the island, a point from which a naval force could guard the Windward channel between Cuba and Hayti, and the other is at Bahia Honda, fifty miles west of Havana, a location commanding both the Florida straits and the Yucatan channel. The naval station at Guantanamao and the reserve at Bahia Honda each has an area of twenty-nine square miles. The United States holds jurisdiction over these tracts so far as the residents are concerned, but the sovereignty remains with Cuba and no business can be carried on through private enterprises.

ON LONG INSPECTION TOUR.

Washington, Nov. 3.—To inspect immigration stations at Honolulu and points en route Commissioner General of Immigration Daniel J. Keefe will depart today on a tour that will require two and a half months. Places that will be embraced in his itinerary include Sudbury, Winnipeg and Vancouver in Canada, and Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Tucson, El Paso and Chicago.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 3.—Belief on the part of pit traders that considerable wheat could be dislodged through stop loss orders led to the raid on prices today. The move was successful in causing lower quotations, but not a great deal of selling by owners issued. One reason was expectation of smaller shipments from Russia, India and the Argentine republic. On the other hand, the crop outlook in Argentine continued favorable and the Buenos Ayres market was weak. Prices here opened a shade lower to ¼@⅜c higher. The start for December was at 89½c to 89⅝c, a sixteenth off, to the same amount up. A descent was made to 89⅜c.

With country selling only in a snaring manner, corn was firm. December opened ⅛@¼c to ⅜@½c higher at 47¼c to 47⅜c and reacted to 47⅛@47¼c.

Buying power did not display itself much in the oats pit. December started a shade down at 31⅝@31¾c, rallied a trifle and then declined to 31½c.

Higher prices for hogs made provisions advance. First sales were 2½c to 10c up, with the January option at $17.12½ to $17.15 for pork, $10.30 for lard and $9.12½ for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Nov. 3.—A moderate demand carried opening prices for stocks today a fraction over last night. The gains exceeded ½ in Union Pacific, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste Marie.

Advances occurred in a long list of industrials on the strength of reports of steel rail orders from the railroads and buying of copper for future delivery. Union Pacific and Reading were the only conspicuous railroad stocks with gains of 1¼ and 1⅛. Central Railroad of Georgia 3 and United States Steel and a number of minor steel and other industrials as well as railroad stocks a point. Bonds were irregular.

The market relapsed a trifle, Southern Pacific, United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and American Smelting sagging below yesterday's closing. Afterward there was a return to the opening figures. Southern Railway preferred, Reading, Colorado Fuel and National Railways of Mexico second preferred gained 1 and American Brake Shoe preferred 3 points. Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis fell 2¼ and Rock Island preferred, Wisconsin Central and Rutland preferred 1 point.

United States Steel forged upward to its record high price of $80¼ and there was a further gain in a wide variety of specialties. American Beet Sugar and Sears Roebuck rose 2½, Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis 2, and Iowa Central and American Smelting 1½. There was little doing in the railroad section, but St. Louis was lifted a point.

Realizing sales forced American Smelting back a point, but had little effect on the rest of the list. Federal Mining preferred advanced 2¼.

The market closed about steady and dull. United States Steel was pushed up to 80⅜, thus extending the high level for the movement by ⅛. Inactive stocks weakened when late sales were attempted. Reading second preferred and American Agricultural Chemical fell 1 and International Pump preferred 1. Colorado Fuel rose 2¾.

Throat and Bronchial Troubles

The old-time methods of treating throat and bronchial troubles by sprays and swabs have given way to better methods by the up-to-date physician. Respiratory diseases yield more readily to oxyoline and electrical treatments than to medicines or a change of climate. In the treatment of chronic coughs, catarrh and sore throats, better results can be secured by this method than in any other way.

Oxyoline is a wonderful new electrical product for inhalation, superior to ozone. One treatment will accomplish more than a week's outdoor life in the most ideal climate. Those who have been unable to secure satisfactory results from ordinary treatment are invited to investigate the merits of this treatment.

JAMES B. STOWE DEAD.

Brother of Mrs. F. J. Reineke Expires in Mississippi.

A telegram to Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Reineke Wednesday night brought news of the death of James B. Stowe, a brother of Mrs. Reineke, which occurred in Mississippi. He was engaged as "twenty-four-hour man" with the Barnum & Bailey circus, and death must have been sudden, as in a letter received by Mrs. Reineke but a day before her brother stated that his health was excellent. Mr. Stowe resided at Columbus, O., and had frequently visited in Fort Wayne. He came of a family long prominently identified with the circus business.

An Allen county lady bought her wedding outfit of the Foster Furniture Company in 1868. In 1888, 20 years thereafter, they sold her daughter her wedding outfit. In 1909, 21 years later, they sold the daughter's daughter her wedding Outfit. Three generations—the "Big Store" is reaping the honors of having entered the "Foxy Grandpa" list. And it is just "Foxy" enough not to let the "young kids" of the business world get any start upon it. It still leads the procession.

It is truly a sad mistake not to anticipate your needs before the rush. We are now in position to make deliveries. Later we may not be. You can have one of these excellent stoves set up in your home for $5.00 down, or by paying cash and receiving the liberal discount of 10%. Make your selection today.

We have a special 15-inch fire pot Stewart Base-Burner, which we offer you for the exceptionally low price of $29.75. We particularly call your attention to our complete line of Wilson Air-Tights from $1.75 up.
